Bend's Old Mill District
along the Deschutes River

Quick Trip Central Oregon

By Margaret Waterbury

No matter what month it is, there's a good chance that the lucky denizens of Central Oregon are basking in sunny (or at least dry) conditions. Rivers, rafting, rock climbing and, yes, wine make this high-desert destination a playground for oenophiles with an outdoorsy streak.

At The Cove Palisades State Park, about 45 miles north of Bend, three boat launches make it easy to get out onto the Deschutes and Crooked rivers. After you've worked up an appetite on the water, head to Maragas Winery in Culver for flights and charcuterie boards. Drawing on its owners' family history making wine in Crete, Maragas grows a mix of hybrid and European varieties in its mineral-rich volcanic soil. Just down the road, a great stop to stretch your legs is Smith Rock State Park, one of Oregon's hiking and rock-climbing epicenters.

About 20 minutes west, Faith, Hope & Charity Vineyards in Terrebonne grows cold-tolerant varieties like La Crescent and Frontenac, plus works with grapes from the Columbia Valley AVA. While you taste, take in sweeping vistas of the Three Sisters volcanic peaks.

Using barrel aging, wild yeasts, local malt and foraged botanicals, The Ale Apothecary makes brews with a sense of the surrounding terroir. Visit their Bend tasting room to sample mind-bending ales, including some co-fermented with grapes. Oregon's iconic Deschutes Brewery got its start in Bend in 1988. Make a pilgrimage to its O.G. brewpub for draft specials and upscale pizzas and burgers.

In Bend's lively Old Mill District, Evoke Winery serves up crowd-pleasing pours in jovial surroundings, including an outdoor fire pit, and Va Piano Vineyards' tasting room is an excellent place to sip small-lot Cabernet Sauvignons, Syrahs and red blends from the Walla Walla Valley. If the timing's right, enjoy a First Friday Art Walk while you're in the neighborhood. Looking for a nightcap? Squint and imagine you're in Paris at San Simón, a hip, dimly lit cocktail bar down the brick-walled Tin Pan Alley.

Tucked inside a Craftsman bungalow on Bend's west side, Ariana Restaurant dishes up European-inspired Northwest cuisine like beef carpaccio with horseradish cream and truffle, or seared jumbo scallops over Oregon Dungeness crab risotto. An expansive wine list includes selections from Oregon as well as farther afield.

Pacific City

Quick Trip Oregon Coast

By Peter Szymczak

“Mine, mine, mine,” says the seagull swooping over the salty spray of the Pacific Ocean. As the gull flies, there’s more than 350 miles of coastline running from north to south along the Oregon Coast, so it’s entirely probable to discover a deserted stretch of sandy beach to call one’s own. But really, there’s no need to get possessive, because every beach and every mile of coastline in Oregon is public.

Just north of Lincoln City, Roads End State Recreation Site embodies everything that makes Oregon’s coast so special: rock formations that seem to reach right out of the ocean, tide pools teeming with marine life and the headland with its hidden cove.

The Oregon Dunes National Recreation Area stretches 42 miles from Florence to Coos Bay and offers outdoor recreation galore. Dune buggy, bike, hike, paddle, picnic or play among the tree islands, wetlands and beaches. Boarders of all persuasions — skate, snow and surf — can even carve on the sandy dunes. Not far from Coos Bay is the internationally awarded Bandon Dunes

Golf Resort, with restaurants including The Gallery. Find an exceptional international wine list spotlighting many Oregon favorites.

For a truly unique fishing experience, Pacific City is home to one of the last dory fleets in the country. For more than a century, these flat-bottomed wooden boats have gone out to sea and brought back Chinook and Coho salmon, Dungeness crab, albacore tuna, and rockfish, all of which pair perfectly with Oregon’s premium wines. In town, stop in at Twist Wine Company or Pelican Brewing Company to satisfy your thirst and hunger.

Manzanita is a quaint coastal community just 15 minutes south of bigger and more bustling Cannon Beach, with 7 miles of uninterrupted, dog-friendly beach. Watch the waves, wine glass in hand, in front of the fire pit on the ocean-view deck at The Winery at Manzanita.

In Depoe Bay, whale watching is the main attraction, followed closely by spectacular sunsets at Depoe Bay Winery and Flying Dutchman Winery, perched high on a cliff.
